

AEROOSTM

Fall 2011
Vol. 5 Issue 19

MODERN EVENTS
Southern California
Complimentary

Jet-Setting Wedding Style

The Hilton LAX is a first-class venue

A 'Posch' New Restaurant

Luxe dining option arrives in Irvine

An Unforgettable Evening

DJ Payman brings the party to you

Mirror, Mirror, off the Wall

Would you go without mirrors?

Tala & Pendar

July 30, 2011

The couple: Tala Taghvay & Pendar Fazeli

The location: Hilton Universal City

The flowers and color scheme: Alison from La Petite Gardenia designed the flower with the couple's color scheme of blush pink, cream, and white. The flowers were chosen because they complemented the ballroom to match the invitations and gold chivari chairs. The bride's ensemble: The shoes were from Jimmy Choo, and Henry Zador Salon did the hair and makeup. The bridesmaid's ensemble: A silver dress from Nordstrom. The groom's and groomsmen's ensembles: By Joseph Abboud. The coordinator: Shirley Han from the Fresh Events Company. The invitations: Crane and Co. designed the invitations with a beige and bisque color with diamond studs. The lighting and rentals: By Fresh Events Company. The food: By Bahador Catering. The cake: By Porto's Bakery. It was a white and beige three-tier cake with diamond studs around it, along with the couple's two initials on top. The entertainment: Singer Morteza, Aris Band, and DJ. Dzien. The honeymoon: The Cayman Islands. The photography, slide-show and videography: By Navid Studio. The rings: Classical styles from Tiffany and Co. The favors: Picture frames that were around the seating cards, from I Do Concepts. The officiants: Pastor Eric Heard and Masoud Fardmanesh. The sofreh: By Pouri Houshiar Nejad. From the couple: We want to thank everyone that attended our special day with us. Many guests also came from many different states and countries, so we appreciate that so much. — As told by Tala & Pendar.

